Greeting and Collect for Purity pg.185

Gloria in Excelsis (sung together) pg. 231

Collect for the Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany

Celebrant: Living God,

People: in Christ you make all things new.
Transform the poverty of our nature
by the riches of your grace,
and in the renewal of our lives
make known your glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

II. THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

FIRST READING: DEUTERONOMY 18:15-20

The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. This is what you requested of the Lord your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: "If I hear the voice of the Lord my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die." Then the Lord replied to me: "They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak - that prophet shall die."

Reader: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 111

The server will lead the Psalm and the congregation will respond by alternate verse.

Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation. Great are the deeds of the Lord! they are studied by all who delight in them.

His work is full of majesty and splendour, and his righteousness endures for ever. He makes his marvellous works to be remembered; the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

He gives food to those who fear him; he is ever mindful of his covenant. He has shown his people the power of his works in giving them the lands of the nations.

The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; all his commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and ever, because they are done in truth and equity.

He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant for ever; holy and awesome is his name. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; those who act accordingly have a good understanding; his praise endures for ever.

SECOND READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 8:1-13

Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that "all of us possess knowledge." Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge; but anyone who loves God is known by him. Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that "no idol in the world really exists," and that "there is no God but one." Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth - as in fact there are many gods and many lords - yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist. It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. "Food will not bring us close to God." We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols? So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed. But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God

GOSPEL: MARK 1:21-28

Gospeller: The Lord be with you

People: And also with you.

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

People: Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

They went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, "What is this? A new teaching - with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 29, 2012

ALTAR FLOWERS

As many of you heard last week, we lost over $600.00 in 2011 from our flower budget. Some of the loss incurred was from HST, and some was from flowers that were ordered and not paid for. Therefore, we are raising the cost of the flowers to accommodate this. Beginning in February, Altar Flowers will cost $50.00, inclusive of the tax. *It is always possible to share the cost of flowers, and we encourage you to do so if this is helpful. If this is the case, both dedications will be put in the bulletin on Sunday. Flowers must be paid for two weeks in advance, and your dedication must be given to the office two weeks in advance as well, as bulletins are done at that time. Please note your request on the 2012 Altar Flower Chart which is located on the large bulletin board at the back of the church. The Rector and Wardens appreciate your understanding in this matter.

COFFEE HOUR HOSTS

Coffee Hour is one of our most important ministries of Hospitality (after the Eucharist), but we are in need of more Coffee Hour Hosts. Currently we only have 10 active Coffee Hosts! While everyone enjoys their hospitality and refreshments, we all need to share in the workload or we will lose our current Hosts as well. If you are able to only bring in food and refreshments, please speak to one of the current Coffee Hosts who can assist you. Please consider becoming a Coffee Host: join with a friend and share the responsibility! Sign up sheet is on the easel in the Narthex.

VESTRY POT LUCK LUNCH

Vestry will be held on February 12, 2012, following the 10:30 am service. The sign up sheet is now available for those who wish to bring food to this event. Coffee and tea will be provided.

EXCITING NEWS!

Last Sunday January 22, at 12:00 noon, The Church of the Holy Spirit welcomed the Igbo Prayer Group to the Basil Tonks Room. Over 30 adults and children attended. This is a group of our fellow Anglicans from Nigeria who wish to gather in worship in their own language, and using their own customs, from the Anglican Church in Nigeria, as a way to keep their language and customs alive for their children. It is our hope and prayer that this group may grow into a full fledged Anglican Church one way! In the meantime, we are thrilled to welcome them into our church and our parish!.
